

STAFF

Curator Peter Macht

Educator Katrina Hart

Manager Suzanne Hebert

Seymour Center Director: Julie Barrett Heffington

Manages Seymour Center education/exhibit programs, fundraising/earned-income programs, daily operations, and long-term development.

Youth Programs Manager: Suzanne Hebert

Develops, manages, and presents K-12 and community college school programs. Oversees youth education programs including extensive day camp program, and teacher/youth group leader education.

Youth Programs Educator: Katrina Hart

Teaches daily K-12 school programs and manages/teaches summer day camp, Ocean Explorers marine science program for K-9 children.

Aquarium Curator: Peter Macht

Oversees all husbandry functions, including design, setup, maintenance, and care for aquarium exhibits, sea water table, wet-lab classroom, and holding tanks.

Exhibit and Enrichment Programs Manager: Wendelin Montciel

Responsible for planning and development of interpretive signage and exhibits. Develops and presents specialty activities and outings.

Volunteer Services and Visitor Hall Manager: Vacant

Manages the volunteer program with more than 200 volunteers working in all operational aspects. Responsible for visitor education in exhibit hall, aquarium, and tours of marine lab.

Friends of Long Marine Lab Executive Director: Lisa M. Rose

Develops community support group, manages community relations, fund raising events, and manages facility rentals program.

Membership and Donor Stewardship Manager: Katherine Moore

Manages membership (1,200 current members), business sponsorship, and other donor development programs.

Ocean Discovery Shop Manager: Terry Wardwell

Manages gift and book shop dedicated to enhancing the visitor experience through sale of marine science books, gifts, and apparel.

Office Manager: Teri Sigler

Serves as primary visitor information source and manages Seymour Center administrative office.

Admissions/Operations Coordinator: Abby Borsgard

Operates center admissions and information counter, schedules/registers group and specialty tours.