DESCRIPTION: Come join the fun and learn more about the Exploration Vessel (E/V) Nautilus and the Seymour Marine Discovery Center.

Melissa Baffa, GSCCC staff member and Lead Science Communication Fellow aboard the E/V Nautilus will facilitate a live interaction with the ship along with a Q & A period followed by time for a self-guided exploration of the Marine Discovery Center.

The E/V Nautilus is the ship that GSCCC staff member Melissa Baffa sailed on last year to the Galapagos Islands. As a reminder, Melissa will be setting sail once again this year, from August 1-14, exploring the ocean off of Southern California! You will be able to join the expedition at www.nautiluslive.org

EVENT DETAILS: Girls will have a chance to:
- Learn about the current expedition season, including studies around the Farallones and Monterey.
- Learn about opportunities for girls & women aboard the E/V Nautilus.
- Explore the Seymour Marine Discovery Center's aquaria and exhibits.
- Includes two-for-one admission coupon good for a future visit to the Seymour Marine Discovery Center

Tag-alongs, friends, and family members are welcome! If they are not registered Girl Scouts, admission fee will be paid at the Seymour Marine Discovery Center rather than through eBiz.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Troop leader or adult chaperone is required to have all traveling forms for each participating girl. (Annual Permission Form, Health History, Permission for Medication, Permission to Release) Forms can be downloaded from the council website www.girlscoutccc.org/forms Review specific event requirements in Safety Activity Checkpoints before taking any trip.
